The wine list at ARIA Brisbane highlights bottles from all of the world's major grape-growing regions. There are a number of back vintage gems from Australia that are now at full maturity, featuring a vast spread of both the much loved classics and hard to get cult wines that are a little more obscure. Each of these wines tells the unique story of its origin - the Terroir, the vintage and the wine making.

ARIA treats wine with the utmost respect and dignity and all of the bottles have been maintained in impeccable private cellars, giving depth and structure to the list. Proper cellaring ensures that wines both age gracefully and they emerge in the dining room ready to be savoured at the correct temperature.

Our wine program offers a great selection of wines by the glass that change frequently. These wines combine with dishes crafted from premium seasonal produce to create the celebrated synergy between food and wine as to enhance the dining experience.

SELECTED SHERRIES BY EQUIPO NAVAZOS

With wine writer Jesús Barquín, and the technical director of Grupo Estévez, Eduardo Ojeda at the helm, Equipo Navazos are challenging preconceptions of the region and its wines. Equipo Navazos source and bottle some of Spain's most rare Sherries. These wines come from soleras and individual casks that remain, relatively neglected by the market in the last few decades, in the bodegas of some of the most prestigious Andalusian producers. Some of them are unexpected but fortunate findings, testimony of the anonymous work of generations; others are the result of collaborative efforts. For the true aficionado, these selections by the glass offer outstanding complexity and the chance to access wines that legitimately belong among the greatest wines of the world.

ARTISINAL SAKE BY BLACK MARKET SAKE

Black Market Sake import exclusively Junmai or 'Pure Rice Sake', made without added ethyl alcohol or other additions. These unique small production Sakes rely on quality rice, local water and the technique and skill of the Master Brewer. The aim is to offer the most extensive and varied flavour profiles that one can experience in Sake, utilising a wide variety of polishing rates and many different varieties of rice.

- 2015 Mukai Shuzo Ine Mankai
Junmai Genshu
Kyoto, Japan 20
Made in minuscule amounts and using an ancient variety of red rice in part of the fermentation, Ine Mankai is a rose petal coloured Sake with high levels of sweetness and balanced acidity. A complex smoky cherry, vanilla and savoury yet fruity palate with hints of pomegranate.
- 2014 Moriki 'Tae no Hana' Kimoto
Junmai Ginjo Yamahai Muroka Nama Genshu Arabashiri
Mie, Japan 19
Aromas of freshly fermenting Sake and pears. A round mouthfeel, with a hint of spice and pear fruit. The finish is long and delicate.
- 2014 Chiyo 'Shinomine Chokara'
Junmai Muroka Nama Genshu
Nara, Japan 18
Fresh melon and honeysuckle on the nose. With a refreshing palate of fresh green herbs and melon and a finish that is long and dry.
- 2013 Naka 'Asahi Wakamatsu Omachi'
Junmai Muroka Nama Genshu
Tokushima, Japan 22
Made from the famous Omachi rice strain, the oldest existing strain of sakemai. This Sake has a rich layered palate, amazing depth of flavour and spicy textural finish.
- 2016 Miwasakura Shuzo 'Omusubi'
Junmai Yamahai Nama Genshu
Hiroshima, Japan 22
Made with Hattan-Nishiki rice, and polished to 70% seimai-buai, Miwasakura has earthy aromas with a hint of Enoki mushroom. The palate is extremely dry and savoury, with a viscous texture, bright acidity, and a long mineral finish.
- 2011 Mutemuka Muroka
Junmai Nama Genshu
Kochi, Japan 19
Owners here were pioneers of organic farming and are located near Japan's purest River, Shimantogawa. A bold Sake, with yeasty and exotic mushroom notes.
- 1991 Kidoizumi 'Kokin'
Junmai Ginjo Yamahai Koshu
Chiba, Japan 65
A complex aroma of cocoa, coffee, caramel & spices. The palate is full bodied and complex - toffee, bitter chocolate, salted caramel along with sherry-like oxidative/nutty characters.

LOCAL SPOTLIGHT

GRANITE BELT - QUEENSLAND

The Granite Belt is an exciting upcoming region located right on Brisbane's doorstep. Due to the Granite Belt's high altitude, cool weather conditions and many micro-climates spread throughout the region, varieties that are suited to such conditions have proven to produce some exceptional quality fruit.

SYMPHONY HILL

Symphony Hill Wines is a family-owned boutique winery located in the cool climate Ballandean highlands of Queensland's Granite Belt. Ewen and Elissa Macpherson bought the old table grape and orchard property in 1996 after falling in love with the area and its potential for premium wine production. In partnership with Ewen's parents, Bob and Jill Macpherson, they have developed the vineyard to its present high standard. Symphony Hill Wines is a family focussed venture with, at one stage, four generations of the family living on the property. Ewen has completed his Bachelor of Applied Science in Viticulture while the Vineyard Manager and Head Winemaker, Mike Hayes, is a third-generation viticulturist in the Granite Belt region.

2014 Symphony Hill Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon	Granite Belt	99
2014 Symphony Hill Reserve Petit Verdot	Granite Belt	125

LÍRAH

Also a high quality vinegar producer and exporter, Lírah produces a highly unusual "Winter Harvest" Nebbiolo. A full bodied, dry red wine, made in a style similar to the wines of Amarone, but dried on the vine, and harvested 10 weeks or more after the end of the regular vintage for the region. The grapes are some of the last grapes to be picked in Australia each year. Making them possibly the last grapes harvested in the Southern hemisphere annually.

The soil of the vineyard is coarse, decomposed granite. Poor, but free draining which is an advantage for summer storm rainfall. The slope is steep, which gives frost protection for the early bud bursting nature of Nebbiolo.

2007 Lírah Winter Harvest Nebbiolo	Granite Belt	213
2006 Lírah Winter Harvest Nebbiolo	Granite Belt	215

RAVENS CROFT

Located 12 kilometres west of Stanthorpe, the 28 acre property was purchased in 2004. Ravens Croft established its own winery in 2009 with a 50 tonne capacity. South African owner and winemaker Mark Ravenscroft migrated to Australia in 1992 with dreams to establish his own winery. After 20 years experience including stints at Tyrrell's, Capel Vale and then Ballandean he bought his own property. Mark makes his wines from local contract grown grapes from throughout the Granite Belt and endeavours to source only the best grapes from the region.

BALLANDEAN ESTATE WINES

Formally trading as Sundown Valley Vineyards; Ballandean Estate is Queensland's oldest family owned and operated winery. Wine has been produced on the estate since 1932 with the opening of the Cellar door in 1970. Salvatore Cardillo settled with his family in the Stanthorpe area in 1930 and started with plantings of table grapes. It wasn't until 1968 when nephew Angelo Puglisi and his wife Mary took over the farm that they started making wine commercially with what was some of the first planted wine grapes in the region. Winemaker Dylan Rhymer has been with the winery since 2000 and owner Angelo oversees operations as well as being the viticulturist. The winery currently has 25 different varieties planted with the aim of catering to every person's palate.

BENT ROAD AND LA PETITE MORT

Viticulturist, Robert Richter and winemaker, Glen Robert established vineyards on banks of the pristine Severn River - Ballandean, in 2000. Since 2005, they have been producing wine under the Bent Road label with a focus on quality, traditional techniques and noble varieties. Hailing from a background in biochemical research, Glen is a proponent of experimentation in the region and (with a little help from sommelier-turned-winemaker, Andrew Scott) Bent Road also produces wines under the La Petite Mort label. Always pushing the boundaries of the old school and the new, this 'other' label is all about experimentation, progression and ultimately, an opportunity to play. These wines are un-filtered and un-fiddled to allow the experimental results to shine through.

PRODUCER SPOTLIGHT

DOMAINE DE L'ANGLORE

Starting his career as a beekeeper Eric Pfifferling inherited 4 hectares of land from his Grandmother in Tavel (Southern Rhône) in 1988. After years of growing grapes for the local co-operative and several trials at making his own wine his first proper vintage wasn't until 2002.

Eric organically farms 5 hectares of land in Tavel and now a further 2 hectares in Lirac, both of which are strewn with gallets, the flat stones Châteaneuf-du-Pape (across the river) is known for. The wines have a precision and drive to them which puts them in the top bracket of quality for the region and indeed, in France!

In terms of winemaking Eric's approach is very simple but very meticulous. He harvests all his fruit by hand, sorts on a table before very gentle and meticulous pressing and then into tall concrete tanks, foudre and large barrels for fermentation, then matures his wines in a combination of foudre, demi-muid and barrique. He uses whole bunches in all of his wines, they all feature some level of carbonic maceration and are all bottled without any fining or filtration yet remain incredibly clean, bright and vibrant. He is a wizard!

Domaine de l'Anglore has become something of a cult wine in the natural wine circles, fetching ridiculous prices in restaurants around the world as a result of scarcity more than anything else, but once you try the wines you can see just why, they are joyous and refined at the same time.

Andrew Guard

2016 Tavel	140
2015 Tavel	120
2014 Tavel	110

Tavel is a AOC blend of Grenache, Clairette, Cinsault and Carignan and is one of the most sought after wines of the Rhone Valley though so are all his wines.

2014 Nulle Part Ailleurs	102
--------------------------	-----

Nulle Part Ailleurs (meaning nowhere else) is a different wine every year, in 2014 he's made a red wine from Mourvedre - something terrific, it's compelling with a lovely broad pallet of red fruits, garrigue spice, energy, vitality, life.

2016 Terre Ombre	110
2015 Terre Ombre	107
2014 Terre Ombre	110

Terre Ombre is the lightest and brightest cuvee produced by L'Anglore, it is made from Grenache and tastes part like a Rose and part like a Red - silky, sultry and bursting with bright fruit and style.

PRODUCER SPOTLIGHT

DOMAINE DE L'ANGLORE

2014 Pierre Chaude 142

This wine is 100% Grenache, made in a light and elegant style with cool fermentation and very little intervention...One might almost say the wine exists to defy images of Grenache as a grape that yields jammy and leaden wines.

2015 Venskab 124

Venskab is a joint venture from Eric Pfifferling of Domaine L'Anglore and Nicolas Renaud from Clos des Grillons. This is equal parts Tavel 2015 from Domaine de L'Anglore and 2015 Rose from Clos des Grillons.

2014 Traverses 132

2015 Traverses 124

Traverses is a blend of 70% Syrah and 30% Grenache, this wine comes from 50-100 year old vines. It is matured in large old barrels with no added sulfur. The wine combines the lush, dark fruitiness of natural southern French wine with a generous hint of garrigue spice, pepper, lavender, blackberries and black plums. The flavors are pure and clear as a bell even as they are ripe and succulent.

2015 Nizon 160

Grapes grown in the Vaunage, very close to de Nîmes and from Marne soils. This is from 50% Mourvèdre planted in 1996 and 50% Grenache planted in 2006. This is all about finesse, a lacy delicate red wine from excellent terroir, it is fruit filled and joyous and the finish razer sharp.
